

Goodwin

On this page:
1Overview 2See also

Overview

Goodwin is an advanced type of in-house cut which compared to the previous generation of cuts (aka ASCII-cuts) has more precise control over the cut geometry when changing the parameters, and also allows controlling the slopes of main facets.

See also

- Troubleshooting: Not compatible with Goodwin