What's new?

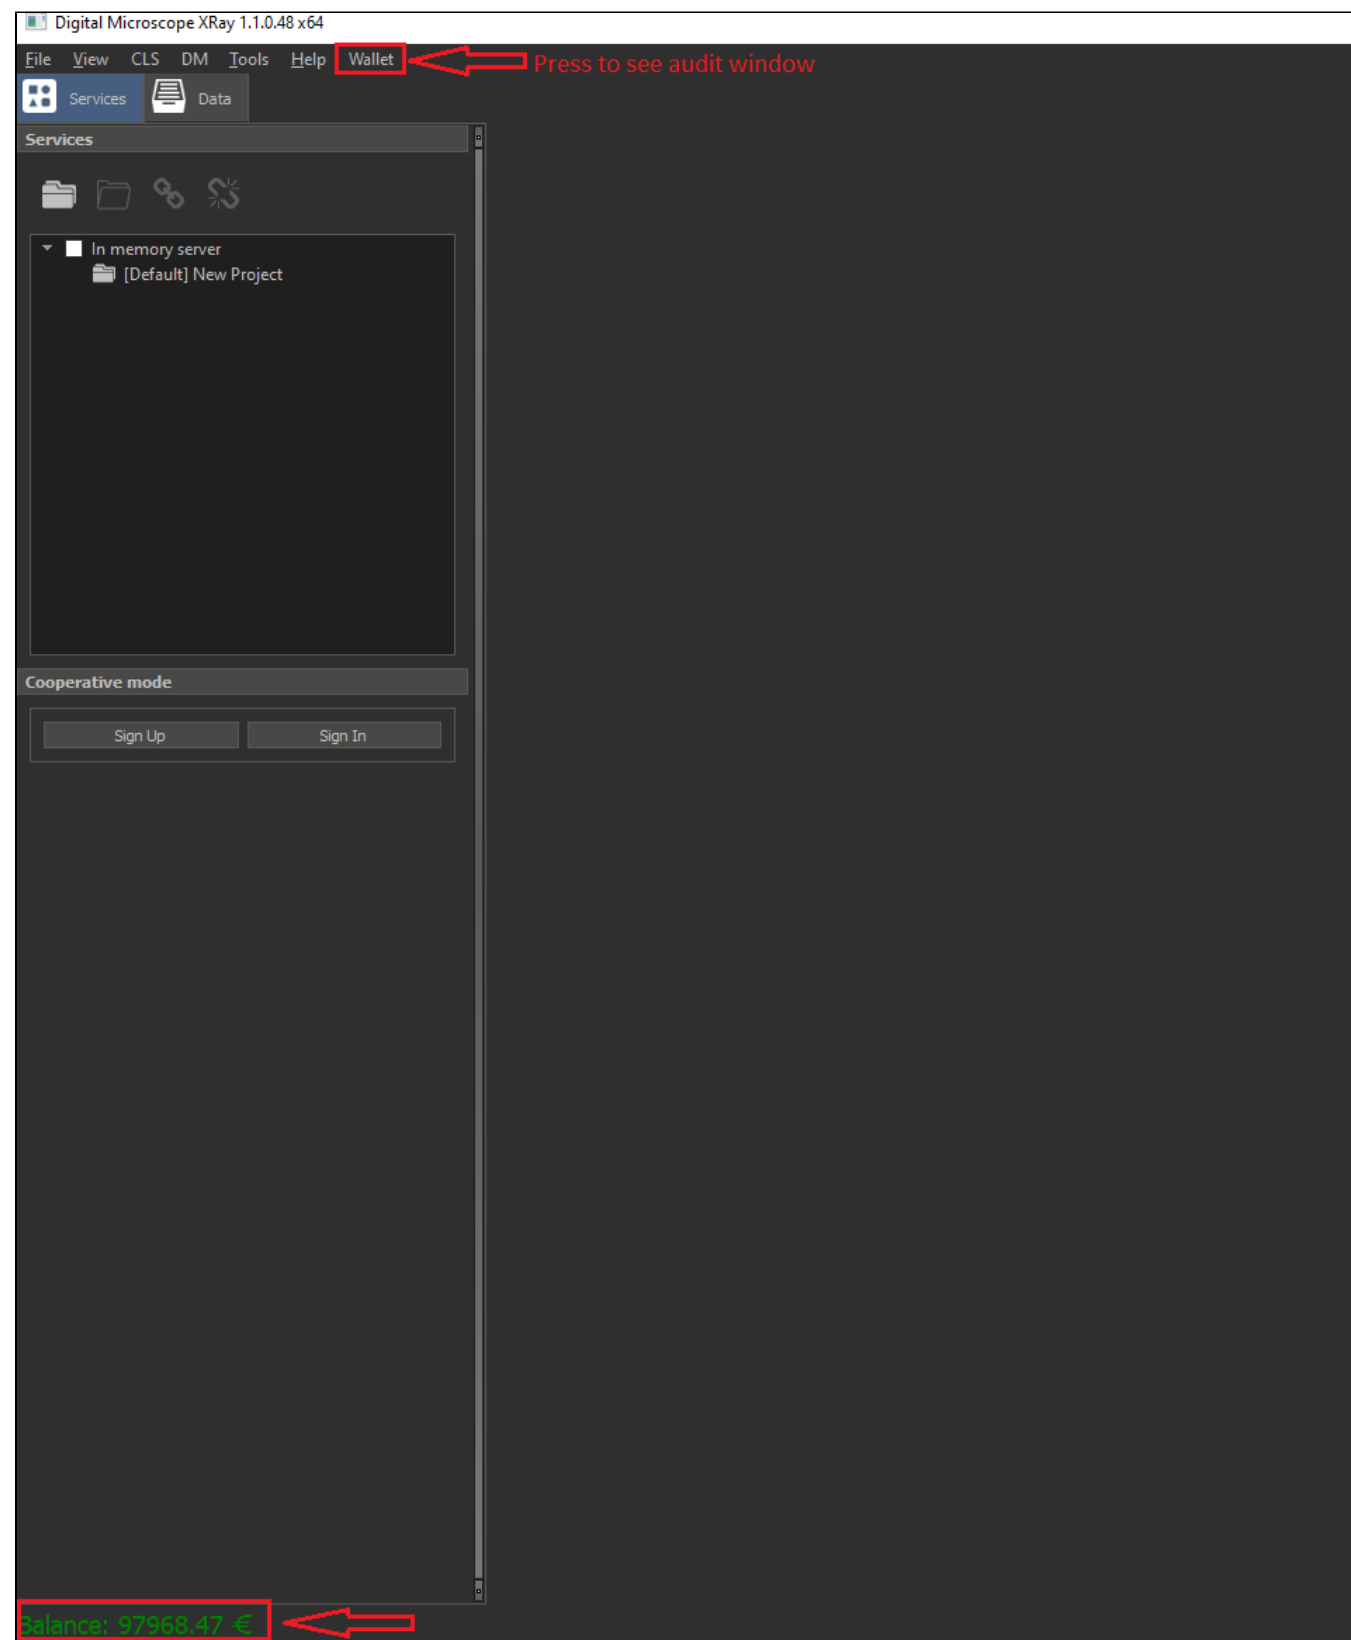

- New payment model supported - wallet on a HASP key. For diamonds above 50 Ct we have the following pricing for each stone (the sum is charged from the HASP):
 - Charge of Euro 4/ Ct for stone size between 50.01 to 100 Ct
 - Charge of Euro 7/Ct for stone size between 100.01 to 300 Ct, and
 - Charge of Euro 10/Ct for stone size above 300 Ct
- Unlimited licence has been cancelled

HASP recharging and charging process

- The client pays an amount he want to refill on his wallet for extra payments for stones above 50Cts.
- After that we send a V2C-file with new HASP firmware with this amount on the wallet
- Client applies the V2C-file and sees the refilled and current balance, transaction history in the DM-Xray
- DM-Xray charges for each stone above 50 Ct when a client calculates the 3D model from XRay scan (any algorithm)
- When the remaining balance is less than 25% and 5% of original balance DM-Xray recommends to make an invoice to fill the balance

If there is an enough amount of funds, the messages will be displayed in green color.

As funds are spent and the threshold of 25% of the last balance after the refilling is reached, you will receive a warning about the need to issue an invoice.

Wallet balance

Less than 25% of funds left on your balance.

We recommend that you issue an invoice for balance charging.

It will take some time, so it is better to do it in advance.

OK

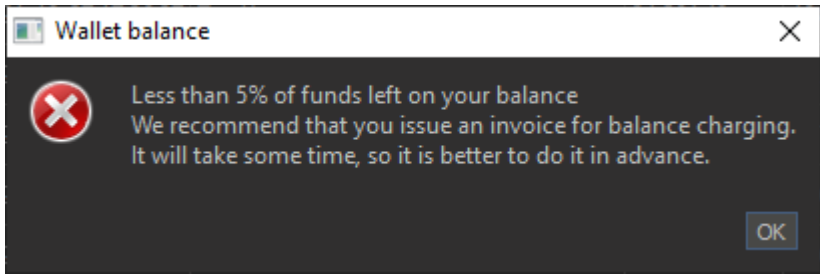

The amount on the balance will be displayed in yellow color.

Carat wallet

Balance: 24972.30 €

Expected time before money shortage is 18 day(s)

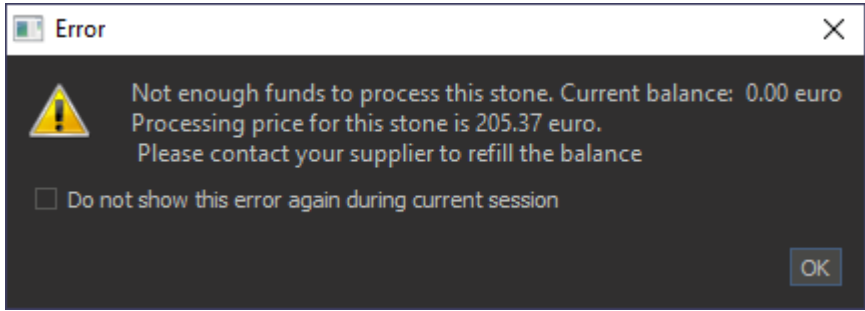

If your cash balance drops below 5%, you will receive another warning.

The amount on the balance will be displayed in red color.

If there are not enough funds in the wallet to pay for stone processing, then you will receive a message similar to the following:

Export transactions to CSV

In the upper right corner of Carat wallet window there is the Export button, by clicking it you can export your all transactions to a CSV file and then analyze it in Microsoft Excel or similar applications.

If you used the HASP wallet on several computer and want to see the whole transaction history, you have to make export of CSV on all computers and then union all CSV in one file.
